"I Can Do All Things through Christ who Strengthens Me"

Phil 4:13

Barbara Lambert has discovered that our loving Father God wants to give each of his children the best life possible.....a life filled with true purpose, peace and joy. Having lived through many years of unstable circumstances and traumatic experiences during her youth, Barbara found herself consumed by feelings of fear, confusion, and worthlessness. She felt inept and incapable of accomplishing much good in life. In 1975 when she received God's healing touch through the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, all that began to change. She began to experience that authentic peace and joy that only God can give and her life took on new meaning.

Since 1993 Barbara has worked in various capacities at SCRC, the Catholic Charismatic Renewal Office in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. She has served as the SCRC Event Manager since 1998. Barbara is also on the RCIA team at her parish, Our Lady of Grace Church in Encino, and serves as a Eucharistic Minister to the Sick. She has 5 children and 2 grandchildren. Barbara's hope is that her testimony will inspire others to stay strong in challenging times and to know that, no matter what, our Loving God can turn all things to good.

Please come and receive inspiration from Barbara's beautiful testimony of hope!
