Mrs. Christine Watkins, formerly an anti-Christian atheist, converted to Catholicism after receiving a miraculous healing from Jesus through Mary, which saved her from death. Moving away from her previous life as a professional ballet dancer with the San Francisco Ballet Company, she began a life of service to the Church and now has over ten years experience as a spiritual director, counselor (with an LCSW), retreat leader, inspirational speaker, and mission preacher. In addition, she currently works as a post-abortion counseling and education director. She has been featured on the FOCUS Television Network, and her new book Full of Grace; Miraculous Stories of Healing and Conversion through Mary's Intercession is now available from Ave Maria Press.

Mrs. Watkins holds a Master's degree in Theological Studies from the Jesuit School of Theology at the Graduate Theological Union and a Master's Degree in Social Welfare from U.C. Berkeley's School of Social Welfare. She lives in Alameda, California with her husband and two sons.
