The Joy of the Lord is My Strength!

Magnificat is pleased to bring you the inspiring testimony of our dear spiritual advisor Fr. Bao Thai. Fr. Bao was born into a non-baptized family in July 1970 in Saigon, South Vietnam. Nine years later, through an incredible series of events and the intercession of Our Blessed Mother, he and his entire family converted to Catholicism on the feast day of the Solemnity of Our Lady's Assumption.

Young Fr. Bao left Vietnam in 1993 with a degree in Computer Science and a new-found faith and hope! In August 1995, Our Lord stirred within his heart a deep desire to become a priest and Fr. Bao answered God's call. His studies would lead him to Mt. Angel Seminary in Oregon, in 1998, followed by St. John's Seminary in Camarillo and ultimately to Rome where he would complete his education at the Angelicum, (The Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas) where he received his Licentiate of Sacred Theology (STL) in Spirituality.

Grounded in his faith, learning, and hard work, Father Bao has enthusiastically served God's people since his youth. After his ordination to the priesthood in the Diocese of Orange on June 7, 2003, he has served in four parishes and is currently the administrator at St. Cecilia Catholic Church and School in Tustin. Come and be blessed by this holy and joyful servant of God!
