

GUEST SPEAKERS

Darrell & Kelly Miller

Angels in the Infield

Magnificat is honored to present Darrell and Kelly Miller as our February breakfast speakers. Darrell Miller is a former Major League Baseball catcher/outfielder with the California Angels. Please join us for the powerful conversion story of this dynamic couple.

Darrell was raised Baptist and was very active in his church when he met Kelly. It was through her love and devotion to her Catholic faith and her gentle perseverance that Darrell would convert to Catholicism. After studying the writings of the Early Church Fathers on the Eucharist, Reconciliation and Papal authority, Darrell quickly recognized the great treasures at the heart of the Catholic Church.

Darrell and Kelly integrated their shared faith into their marriage and family and then into ministry with youth. He has been a featured speaker around the world at Catholic conferences sharing his conversion story. Miller was also invited to participate at the first ever Council on Church and Sports held at the Vatican. He is a board member of Catholic Athletes for Christ.

Today, Darrell serves as the director of Major League Baseball's first Urban Youth Academy, which opened in 2006 on the campus of Compton Community College. The Miller's have been married for 25 years and reside in Orange County with their 3 children.

Come and receive inspiration from Darrell and Kelly's beautiful testimony of hope, love and the fruit of faithfulness!
